

The BROADAX

HEW TO THE LINE; LET THE CHIPS FALL WHERE THEY MAY

Vol. XX.

CHICAGO, MAY 8, 1915

No. 33

The Rev. Hon. Archibald James Carey, Ph. D., D. D., Declared in the Presence of Julius F. Taylor that the Hon. Thomas Wallace Swann Beat Him Out of One Hundred Dollars —That He Was Dishonest Through-and-Through to the Back Bone—That in many Ways He Had Greatly Lowered His Ministerial Standing in the Estimation of the People of Chicago

THEREFORE THE MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE OF ILLINOIS SHOULD REFRAIN FROM APPROPRIATING ANOTHER DOLLAR OF THE PEOPLE'S MONEY FOR THE FORTHCOMING EXPOSITION OR LINCOLN JUBILEE UNTIL AFTER GOVERNOR EDWARD F. DUNNE REMOVES MESSRS. SWANN AND CAREY FROM THE ILLINOIS STATE COMMISSION.

MAYOR WILLIAM HALE THOMPSON SHOULD NOT BRING DISGRACE UPON HIS ADMINISTRATION BY APPOINTING THE REV. HON. ARCHIBALD JAMES CAREY, Ph.D., D.D., AS A MEMBER OF THE LOCAL BOARD OF IMPROVEMENTS, NOR TO ANY OTHER PUBLIC POSITION OF TRUST AND HONOR WITHIN THE CITY OF CHICAGO.

SEVERAL YEARS AGO ONE OF THE BIG OR PROMINENT A. M. E. PREACHERS IN THIS CITY BROKE THE PIANO STOOL BELONGING TO A BEAUTIFUL LADY MEMBER OF HIS CHURCH WHILE HE WAS ENDEAVORING TO EMBRACE OR HUG AND KISS HER.

On the 11th of June, 1913, while the writer was in Springfield, Ill., and appeared before the members of the committee on appropriations in order to assist in securing the twenty-five thousand dollars to enable the colored people of this state to celebrate their fifty years of freedom this coming August and September, the Rev. Hon. Archibald James Carey, Ph.D., D.D., was also present and after he had been selected along with William H. Clark and Julius F. Taylor to wait on his Hon. Gov. Edward F. Dunne for the sole purpose of protesting to him against permitting his bosom friend and pal the Hon. Thomas Wallace Swann to have any official connection whatever with the forthcoming celebration, the Rev. Hon. Archibald James Carey, Ph.D., D.D., who is one of the most tricky A. M. E. political preachers in the world, in speaking to us in relation to his friend, the Hon. Thomas Wallace Swann, went on to say that he had beat him out of one hundred dollars at the time that he was serving as his private secretary; that he was a first-class scoundrel or rascal, or words to the same effect; that he was dishonest through and through to the backbone and that in many ways he had greatly lowered his ministerial standing in the estimation of the people of Chicago.

Just as long as the Rev. Hon. Archibald James Carey, Ph.D., D.D., and the Hon. Thomas Wallace Swann are engaged in the pleasant task of painting each as dishonest as a billion years is long, it is therefore the solemn duty of the members of the legislature of this state to absolutely refrain from appropriating another dollar of the people's money for the forthcoming exposition or Lincoln Jubilee until after the Hon. Edward F. Dunne removes the Rev. Hon. Archibald James Carey, Ph.D., D.D., and the Hon. Thomas Wallace Swann from the Illinois State Commission.

The colored members of the kitchen cabinet of Mayor William Hale Thompson claim that his honor the mayor has made up his mind to appoint the Rev. Hon. Archibald James Carey, Ph.D., D.D., as a member of the local board of improvements or city oil inspector, or city sealer of weights and measures, and have nothing but colored men and women under him in the department he is selected to preside over. Mayor Thompson should think long and very soberly before he finally decides to appoint the Rev. Hon. Archibald James Carey, Ph.D., D.D., to any position of honor or public trust within the city of Chicago, that is, if he does not wish to bring disgrace upon his administration.

Right at this point we want to pause for just one moment to state that if the Rev. Hon. Archibald James Carey, Ph.D., D.D., will give us the name of the colored preacher or publisher of the columns of his Northwestern Christian Recorder, who was ran at chain lightning speed from the corner of 35th and State streets while the band of a fine looking lady was hitting his trail with a big smoking revolver in his hand trying to shoot the said preacher, we will highly appreciate it very much, for no one in the wide world could ever make us believe that any high class self-respecting preacher, white or black, would be guilty of doing such a thing or of performing such a rash act as to attempt to make love to another man's wife, and not in one thousand years would we intimate that the Rev. Hon. Archibald James Carey, Ph.D., D.D., would ever be capable of turning such a lovely trick.

Only a few years ago one of the big and most prominent A. M. E. preachers residing in this city broke up the piano stool belonging to one of the very beautiful members of his church while he was endeavoring to get at her in order to embrace or hug and kiss her.

How long, oh, how long, will that class of colored people who claim to be decent and respectable, tamely submit like cowardly slaves to permit such preachers to represent them on all grand occasions? How long, oh, how long, will they continue to let the civilized world know that at all times they are ever ready to force dishonest dead beats, political tramps, those belonging to the irresponsible element, to the front and hold them up as the personification of all that is true, beautiful and ennobling in human life?

We pause for a reply.

ATTORNEY BEAUBEGARD F. MOSELEY FORWARDED TO MAYOR WILLIAM HALE THOMPSON A COPY OF THE FOLLOWING LETTER PROTESTING AGAINST CITY OFFICIALS MIXING UP IN THE RACE WAR IN THE FORTY-SIXTH BLOCK ON FORESTVILLE AVENUE.

Hon. Beaubegard F. Moseley, who has just moved from 4331 Forestville avenue, about two blocks north of the block in which Mr. C. H. Davis purchased property, and was unable through the activity of the city officials, assistant corporation counsel and policemen, as reported in the Tribune of Sunday last, wrote the mayor upon that episode as follows:

"Chicago, May 2, 1915.
To the Honorable William Hale Thompson, Mayor of the City of Chicago, His Office, City Hall, Chicago.

Esteemed Sir:—I wish to herewith call Your Honor's attention to an article appearing in the second and third columns of Sunday's Tribune (May 2, 1915), in which it is made to appear that a man's right to live and acquire property in Chicago depends upon his race and color. I would not deem this of sufficient importance to call this to Your Honor's attention, if the particular in this episode and this attempt to go "the birth of a nation" one better in its crusade to criticize the handiwork of God in creating the races were all private citizens, but I find among them one Charles M. Hatt, reported as an assistant corporation counsel, and one J. H. Wilson, a police officer, officially connecting your administration

HON. CHARLES S. DENEEN

The former courageous Governor of Illinois, who is being prominently mentioned for President of the United States in 1916, who had the manhood to stand up and prevent the voters of Cook county from being disfranchised in the republican judicial convention on Wednesday by Mayor William Hale Thompson and Ex-mayor Carter H. Harrison, the "Man of Destiny."

with this latest attempt to degrade and belittle as well as outrage the rights of men because of color; and as a taxpayer and citizen of Chicago, I wish to protest against the retention of those in the city's service who are so un mindful of the duty of the city and its servants toward the citizens, as to permit themselves to become willing instruments in the service of evil and feeble-minded men and women to the shame and disgrace of us all.

Sincerely yours,
Several civic organizations have also wrote and complained about the matter. This is the mayor's opportunity, and all are awaiting his reply.

FINAL RECITAL OF THE FREE SERIES.

Artistic Program Arranged by Cary B. Lewis for Thursday Night, May 13—Public Invited—Was Founded by Cary B. Lewis.

The fortnightly free recitals which have been made an institution in Chicago under the direction of Mr. Cary B. Lewis and M. Pierre Caillaux, have done much toward an advancement, recognition of and a desire for higher and loftier things in music than has any other series of musicals ever given in this country. Here have gathered the pilgrims who knowing the need gave fullest acclaim as to the worthiness of them and fathered them. Here gathered the student ever desirous of securing more knowledge in music analysis and anthropology. Here gathered the pleasure seeker who had heard that music could inspire one; could give warmth to one's imagination, went away feeling rich in their reward, a higher appreciation for the higher things musical. Too much praise can not be given the artists who have appeared on the programs and have given their time and service freely that a group of people may know more about the beauty and joy of music and of the composers and music of this group. Here are some of the artists who swelled the evenings with pleasure:

Mrs. Annis Hackley, Mrs. Wills Todd Sloan, Mrs. Clara Hutchison, M. Pierre de Caillaux, Miss Eudora Fisher Lockett, Prof. James A. Mundy, Walter E. Gossett, Theo. Taylor, Miss Anna Strayhorn, Miss Frances Galloway, Mrs. De Witt Smith, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Phyllis Woodward, Mrs. Estelle Majors, Mr. Charles Reese, Mr. William Armstrong, Mr. Carroll Dickerson and sister.

Last Recital May 13.

The last recital of the season will be Thursday evening, May 13th, in the gymnasium. Extra chairs will be secured to accommodate the crowd. There will be a silver offering taken at the door. It will be by far the most gala musical of the season. The artists comprise the following: Madame Florence Cole Tolbert, soprano; Prof. W. L. Jackson, violinist; Mrs. Mary Odette, soprano; Mrs. Marjorie Gaskill, pianist; Miss Frances Spencer, harpist; Miss Irene Howard, cornetist; M. Pierre de Caillaux and Mrs. Penelope H. Jackson, pianists.

Hon. Charles S. Deneen and His United Forces Routed Mayor William Hale Thompson, His Shouters, Retainers and Followers in the Republican Judicial Convention. The Carter H. Harrison Wing Had Hot Time in Evolving His Judicial Ticket

On Wednesday the united forces of Hon. Charles S. Deneen disregarded the advice of the Chicago Tribune and they went to the mat with the democratic and republican shouters, retainers and followers of Mayor William Hale Thompson and his honor, the present mayor of Chicago, and his whole shooting match were rushed off to the cleaners after they had come in contact with the Hon. Charles S. Deneen and his hosts of true republicans.

Prior to the late April election it seems that the political managers met some of the sore-headed followers of then Mayor Carter H. Harrison somewhere in a dark room and they then and there in a cold-blooded manner entered into the hellish scheme of dividing up the nominations for judges of the circuit, superior and the supreme courts among themselves, with the understanding that all the Harrison democrats should vote for Mr. Thompson for mayor and in case he was successful at the polls they would see to it that the great majority of the people residing in this city and county would be disfranchised, as they only intended to name for judges so many democrats and so many republicans, and the people would be forced to vote for their candidates or not vote at all, and any candidate for judge, according to their cut and dried, rotten and undemocratic plan, receiving ten votes would have been elected judge, whether he was competent or not, and the voters owe a lasting debt of gratitude to the Hon. Charles S. Deneen for smashing or knocking it into a cocked hat, for the following straight republican judicial ticket was nominated on Wednesday:

Supreme Court—Orrin N. Carter, Evanston.
Circuit Court—Victor P. Arnold, 27th ward; Oscar M. Torrison, 28th ward; George F. Barrett, 11th ward; "Kiekham Scanlan, 15th ward; "Meritt W. Pinckney, 6th ward; D. F. Matchett, 7th ward; Jesse Holdom, 6th ward; Thomas Peden, 8th ward; Carl R. Chindblow, 26th ward; "Frederick A. Smith, 19th ward; "John Gibbons, 23d ward; "Richard S. Tutbill, Evanston; "C. M. Thomeon, 25th ward; "Donald E. Nickberg, 6th ward;

"Thomas J. Graydon, 21st ward; "Thomas Taylor, Jr., New Trier; "Jesse Baldwin, Oak Park; Andrew J. Redmond, Oak Park; David M. Brothers, 24th ward; Edwin H. Taylor, 21st ward.

Superior Court—"Theodore Brentana (long term), 21st ward; Robert E. Turney (short term), 25th ward.

"Renominated. "Progressives.
On Thursday the Carter H. Harrison wing of the democratic party met at the Briggs House, and in the midst of the disgraceful scenes the following judicial ticket was evolved:

Supreme Court Justice—No selection.
Superior Court Judges (long term)—No selection; (short term), John W. Beckwith.

Circuit Court Judges—Phillip J. McKenna, 25th ward; Frank Johnston, Jr., 23d ward; Joseph Sabath, 3d ward; D. J. Normoyle, 30th ward; G. J. Tatge, 32d ward; N. L. Piotrowski, 27th ward; E. J. Zoline, 6th ward; John E. Owens, 13th ward; J. C. Martin, 2d ward; Judge Charles M. Walker, 21st ward; Judge Edward O. Brown, 21st ward; Lockwood Honore, 21st ward; Frank Baker, 2d ward; John P. McGorty, 7th ward; George Kersten, 23d ward; Thomas G. Windes, Winnetka; John Stelk, 12th ward; Otto Kerner, 12th ward; E. R. Thurman, Wilmette; Edward Wade, 6th ward.

To make a long story short, in relation to the fighting democrats it should be the duty of the voters at the judicial election on Monday, June 7th, to pick out and cast their votes for the best men for judges, regardless of their politics.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Commencing the next issue of this paper, Alonzo J. Bowling, A.M., member of the moving picture censorship board of Chicago, will become one of the special contributors of these columns, and his carefully prepared articles on various live subjects will be highly interesting and worth reading.

Miss Wayles Johnson of Waukegan, sister of Mrs. H. Jones, 6641 Evans avenue, is visiting at the latter's home.